The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 6, 9, 10, & 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Giles 6,017,284.

Giles shows an arrow having a shaft 10 of a first outer diameter, and an end portion 11 of a reduced diameter, with a transition region therebetween. Although Giles discloses that it is the rear of the arrow that has the reduced diameter, one could arbitrarily term the reduced diameter section as the "front end" with no structural change.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 7, 8, & 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Giles.

Giles does not disclose that the inner diameter of the reduced portion is 0.200 inches, or that the outer diameter is 0.275 inches. However, one would select the dimensions to suitably mount desired accessories.

Claims 4, 5, & 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
